Riverside Brass: Riverside Brass of Boston have performed in concert at such venues as Boston University and its Tanglewood Institute, King’s Chapel, the Community Music Center of Boston, Old North Church, Old South Church, Harvard University, UMass Boston, and MIT. The group plays a wide variety of styles—from Classical to Contemporary, and everything in between. In the words of one listener, “I would never have known that brass could sound so beautiful. The voices can remain distinct as in a string quartet, but at moments, they merge to create that majestic blend as only brass can do.” For their outdoor Fête de la musique performance, the trumpets and trombones of the Riverside Brass will delight with an eclectic variety of light classical music, blues, American folk and world music, with a few fun surprises thrown in the mix. Enjoy the summer sounds of brass!

Matt Heaton & The Outside Toys: Matt Heaton believes music for kids can be entertaining for both children AND parents. His songs are a mix of rockabilly, surf, American roots and Irish traditional music, delivered with a wry sense of humor and a sincere sense of fun. Children and adults respond to his musicianship and variety. The adults in the room particularly appreciate the Muppet-esque touches of humor and observations of kid behavior. Whether you call it children’s music, family music, kindie or toddlerbilly it’s sure to please listeners of all ages.

Akili Jamal Haynes & a Slice of P.A.I. (POSITIVE AFRICAN IMAGES): The voice of Chibuzo Music has been shaped by Akili’s experience growing up in New York and in Georgia. Using the sounds of home, church, the city streets, his deep roots in jazz, funk, hip-hop, poetry, story telling, European classical, African drum/music/dance traditions from Ghana, Haiti, Brazil, Uganda, and Senegal. Chibuzo music has been sculpted by Akili’s tenacious search for self through music.

Purpose: Purpose is a collective of musicians who explore the sounds of jazz, fusion, R&B and more, arranging old works with a fresh young take along with original compositions that address all aspects of the African Diaspora.

Session450: Brad Faucher’s Session450 is a urban blues group. It got its start, 7 years ago, as an informal weekly music residency at Joco’s Kitchen & Bar in Waltham. They now perform at clubs, festivals and concerts all over New England! Recent performances include the Blues for Veterans Festival and the Regent Theatre in Arlington. The band consists of Brad Faucher on guitar and vocals, Shiinichi Otsu on keys, Tim “Foxy” Gibson on bass, and James Weston on drums.

Brad Faucher has long been a first-call guitarist and vocalist on the Boston blues, and R&B scenes. You may have seen him playing his blues-drenched guitar with Boston’s best including: Chicago Bob Nelson, Bird Taylor, Sweet Willie D, Nicole Nelson and Diane Blue. Notable local performances include the Regent Theatre in Arlington, Boston’s Symphony Hall, Tanglewood. Brad effortlessly blends blues, jazz, gospel, and R&B in the tradition of Johnny Guitar Watson, Grant Green, Snooks Eaglin, Cornell Dupree, and O’Donnell Levy. You can currently see him perform with Session450, The Spoilers, Grant AME Male Gospel Chorus, KONG and Good Lord the Lifted.

Chris Hersch and the MoonRaiders: The MoonRaiders are a Western Swing band that combine elements of Jazz, Rock n’ Roll, Country, and Truck Driving music. Award winning guitarist Chris Hersch (www.chrishersch.com) leads this quintet of accomplished musicians, improvising and singing their way through an eclectic set that will please both the dancer and music aficionado. Drawing on a unique repertoire often overlooked in the American Songbook, The MoonRaiders pivot between Bob Wills, Chuck Berry, Dave Dudley, Commander Cody, and original music, all in one show.

Warren Avenue Breakdown: A 6 piece band, playing Latin and R & B music, led by jazz bassist, Chuck Gabriel.

Urbanity: (AT RINGGOLD): Kids Groove with Alex Davis: Kids will explore the basics of creative movement and hip hop. With combinations and more complex sequences of movement, kids can experiment creatively and develop strength, flexibility, balance and coordination while having fun exploring different movement landscapes.

Brazilian Zouk with Jose Cuadra: (AT FRIEDA GARCIA): Brazilian Zouk is a partner dance originating from Brazil. The dance is a descendant of lambada, the music & dance style that swept over the world like a storm in the late 1980’s. Brazilian Zouk is characterized by the dancers’ undulating bodies and the girls’ flowing hair. Depending on the style of Brazilian Zouk, you can see a close connection embrace and long graceful steps, strong hip movements, body isolations and upper-body torsions, wild spins and whip-like head movements. It is danced by people of all ages in night clubs, dance schools and events around the world!

Anne Plaisance: French visual artist, Anne Plaisance, will lead an interactive art workshop where visitors can create their own art from recycled products. This activity is being sponsored by the Consulate General of France in Boston.
